The Parties agree that disciplinary action is based on the principles of progressive discipline, however it is understood that steps in the discipline process may be bypassed based on the seriousness of the offence.

21.2 The Employer has the right to suspend an Employee on a Fixed Work schedule with pay where the Employer deems it necessary to conduct a thorough and objective investigation of any matter that may lead to suspension without pay or

ARTICLE 22 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE AND ARBITRATION

22.1 Grievance

A grievance is any difference arising from the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of this Agreement. There are three types of grievances as follows:

- a) Individual Grievance: The complaint of an individual Employee;
- b) Group Grievance: The complaint of two or more Employees having the same dispute against the Employer; and

- c) Policy Grievance: The complaint of the Union or the Employer which may involve a question of general application or interpretation of the Agreement.

22.2 Unless otherwise specified in this Article, written communications delivered to the Employer shall be sent to the Vice-President, Human Resources. Written communications to the Union shall be sent to the Regional Representative of the Union.

22.3 Grievor
The Grievor is the party (Employer or Union) or Employee(s) initiating a grievance.

22.4 Grievance Procedures
Should a dispute arise between the Union or an Employee and the Employer, a good faith effort shall be made to settle the dispute. Nothing precludes the Parties from resolving a grievance via mediation, informal discussion or in any other manner that they deem appropriate. Where this does not result in a satisfactory resolution, a formal grievance may be filed in the manner set out below.

22.5 Union Grievance

22.5.1 A grievance shall be in writing signed by the Union's representative and Employee(s), and shall be submitted to the Employer within twenty (20) Working Days after the occurrence of the incident giving rise to the grievance, or twenty (20) Working Days from the date the grievor became aware of the events giving rise to the grievance, whichever is later. The grievance shall specify the matter(s) in dispute, the Article(s) alleged to have been violated and the remedy sought. All grievances filed by the Union at Step I shall be delivered to the applicable Dean or Administrator with a copy to Human Resources.

22.5.2 Grievors shall be entitled to Union representation at every step of the grievance procedure.

22.5.3 Grievance Steps

- a) No later than ten (10) Working Days following receipt of the grievance, the applicable Dean or Administrator or their designate and a representative from Human Resources shall meet with the Union's representative(s) and any Employee(s) affected.
- b) The Employer shall provide its response to the grievance within ten (10) Working Days of the Step I meeting.

Step II

- a) If the Step I meeting and response does not resolve the grievance, the Union may submit the grievance to the applicable Vice-President, with a copy to Human Resources, within ten (10) Working Days of receipt of the Step I response.
- b) Within ten (10) Working Days of receipt of the grievance at this step, the Vice-President or their designate and a representative from Human Resources shall meet with the Union's representative(s) and any Employee(s) affected. The Employer shall provide its response within ten (10) Working Days of the meeting at Step II.

22.5.4 In cases involving a dismissal, the Union shall have the right to take a dispute directly to Step II of the grievance procedure.

22.5.5 The Employer shall attempt to schedule grievance meetings with an Employee at times that do not interfere with their employment duties. Where this is not possible, they shall be permitted the required time off to attend such meetings with the Employer without loss of pay or benefits.

22.6 Arbitration

22.6.1 The Union may, within twenty (20) Working Days of receipt of the response after Step II, give written notice to the Vice-President Human Resources of its intention to submit the matter in dispute to an arbitrator for arbitration.

- 22.6.2 The decision of the Arbitrator shall be final and binding on the Employee, the Union and the Employer.
- 22.6.3 The Parties agree that the following persons shall serve as the sole arbitrator on a rotating basis:

 - (b) Kristin Gibson
 - (c) Arne Peltz
- 22.6.4 The persons specified in Clause 22.6.3 above shall serve in rotation according to the order in which they are listed. If an arbitrator is not available within a reasonable period of time (not to exceed three (3) months), the next person on the list shall be selected until one (1) of those on the list is available. For the next arbitration thereafter, the person who appears on the list immediately after the arbitrator last selected shall be next in sequence of selection. By mutual agreement, the Parties may select an arbitrator not on the list. Normally, the arbitration hearing shall commence within two (2) months of the date of the selection of the arbitrator.
- 22.6.5 The arbitrator shall have the duty and power to adjudicate all differences between the Parties in accordance with the Manitoba Labour Relations Act, as amended from time to time.
- 22.6.6 Arbitrations shall be held at a location outside the Employer's premises, unless the Parties agree to hold the hearings on the Employer's premises in which case the Employer shall provide appropriate space for the hearing and each of the Parties.
- 22.6.7 The Parties shall make every reasonable effort to schedule arbitrations at times that do not interfere with the employment duties of the grievor and other Employees whose attendance is required at the arbitration. Where this is not possible, the grievor and other Employees shall be permitted the required time off to attend the arbitration as necessary without loss of pay or benefits.

22.6.8 Each Party shall be responsible for their own expenses of preparing and presenting the case to arbitration, subject to the award of costs by the arbitrator as part of the remedy. The costs of the arbitration, including the remuneration of the arbitrator, shall be shared equally by both Parties.

22.7 Employer Grievance

An Employer grievance is a grievance initiated by the Employer. An Employer grievance shall be set forth in writing and presented to the Business Office of the Union within twenty (20) Working Days from the date of the occurrence of the circumstances giving rise to the grievance. The Union shall have ten (10) Working Days from date of receipt of the grievance in which to reply in writing to the Employer. If the reply provided by the Union does not resolve the grievance and the Employer wishes to proceed with the grievance, then within ten (10) Working Days of receipt of the Union's reply, the grievance shall be referred to arbitration in accordance with the provisions of Clause 22.6.

22.8 Technical Irregularities

No technical violation or irregularity occasioned by a clerical or typographical error in the written specification of the grievance shall prevent the substance of a grievance from being heard and judged on its merits.

22.9 Time Limits

Time limits as established in this Article shall be complied with unless extended by mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union. Such agreement shall not be unreasonably withheld. If a grievance is not responded to within the time limits as established or as mutually extended the grievance may be referred to the next step of the grievance procedure.

22.10 Step Bypassing

One or more of the steps of the grievance procedure may be bypassed by mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union.

- 24.3 The notice will provide information regarding the nature of the technological change, the approximate number and type of Employees likely to be affected, and the expected date of implementation of the change.

- 24.4 During the notice period, the Parties shall hold meaningful consultations on the implications arising from technological change. Where such consultations involve technological change which is likely to affect the income and/or security of employment, the Parties agree to make every reasonable effort to avoid or minimize adverse effects on Members of the Bargaining Unit, but in no case will an Employee's income be negatively impacted during the current academic term.
